

Notes to Contributors

JAPE is published by the Australian Political Economy Movement.

A prime concern is that the journal reaches the widest possible audience. Contributors should write plainly, avoid unnecessary jargon and employ economy in use of footnotes.

Contributions should be sent to the Editorial Coordinator, Frank Stilwell. All contributions go through a refereeing process to determine their suitability for publication. Papers must not be simultaneously submitted to another journal. Include an address and telephone number to facilitate editorial liaison and an abstract of 40-80 words.

The normal maximum length for articles is 8,000 words. References to cited works should be placed in the text's body, not as footnotes. For each quotation/statement requiring reference, place the citation in parenthesis (author's last name, year of publication, and page/s cited), e.g., (Mandel, 1975:231) or (Crough and Wheelwright, 1982:124-29). Footnotes should only include material that cannot be placed in-text.

All references should be listed at the end, alphabetically by author's last name (and chronologically for two or more titles by the same author/s) as indicated below:

Burgess, John (1989) Productivity: a Worker Problem?, Journal of Australian Political Economy, No 24, March, pp. 23-38.

Grieve, Norma and Ailsa Burns (eds) (1986) Australian Women: New Feminist Perspectives, Melbourne: Oxford University Press.

The material in Journal of Australian Political Economy is copyright. Persons seeking permission to reprint articles should contact the JAPE Editorial Coordinator.
